

Las Vegas Daily Gazette.

Thursday, August 21, 1879.

Who is there to mourn for Conkling? Not anybody up to the present writing, and yet he has done splendid service for his party and his country, and is a man of exceptional ability. The semi-triumph in his present unfortunate position is easily explained. First, everybody understands that it is not a downfall but a very serious discomfiture. Second, Bacon has somewhere said that a man may make people afraid of his tongue but he will in time have reason to fear their memories. Conkling has been too disagreeable personally to expect much sympathy.

The Mescalero Apache Indians reservation at Tularosa is a general rendezvous and hiding place for all the renegade Indians in this Territory Texas, Arizona and Mexico. There are now there renegades from Ojo Caliente, San Carlos, and Old Mexico who raid over the country, murdering and scalping and go there for protection when pursued and to dispose of their plunder.—THIRTY FOUR.

Conkling has never liked the newspapers. On every occasion which has arisen, he has expressed himself about them in an uncomplimentary manner and now they will take their turn. And they will get the better of Rosco.

The Stewart grave robbery sensation has been revived by the publication of a long story which is in effect that the body has not been recovered, but is still in the hands of the robbers who now want $250,000 for it.

SELECT SCHOOLS.

ON OR ABOUT THE FIRST OF SEPTEMBER, Miss Annie G. Wood, now of Trinidad, will open a Select School in the room now in process of erection on the premises of the Presbyterian mission. She will teach five hours a day and five days in a week. Every pains will be taken to make it an excellent school and attractive to the pupils. The room will be well finished, neat and commodious, well lighted and ventilated, and in the winter well warmed. The public are invited to examine the room when it shall be completed. The terms will be $3.00 per month, payable monthly. No deduction will be made for absence, except in case of sickness, unless the pupil is absent one week, and when having been ill enough to prevent attendance, the seat will be considered vacant and given to the next applicant. Pupils will be registered in the order of application. Application should be made to the undersigned until Miss Wood arrives.

I believe Miss Wood to be well qualified to make this contemplated school such an one as the citizens of Las Vegas would desire. Her testimonials are of a very high and satisfactory character.
